Welcome to TPiMEA

The leading publication for live events in the Middle East.

TPiMEA – Total Production Middle East & Africa is the sister publication to TPI – Total Production International (1998), the leading global publication for the live events, festival and concert touring industry, home to the industry's biggest networking dinner, the TPI Awards.

Published in the UK by Mondiale Technology Media and established in September 2015, TPiMEA is the next generation of TPI's niche expertise in the live event trade media. Dedicated to the region via a bi-monthly print publication, website and regular newsletter, the entertainment technology and live production community in the Middle East and Africa will further benefit from Mondiale's 20-year connection to the continents.

TPiMEA shines a light on the consistent, world-class development of these continents and the skills, expertise and creativity behind the companies and the people putting the Middle East and Africa on the live event map.

The publication is printed six times a year and distributed throughout the Middle East and Africa.

TPiMEA also hosts in-person events – most notably the TPiMEA Awards, which honours the regional industry's best and brightest individuals and talent. Attended by over 600 industry professionals, it is the ultimate annual networking opportunity for the touring world in the region.
